Large parcel of land on South Pond offered to G'wood for $200 an acre

Long-time resident hopes to keep land, and its views, available to all

By MICHAEL DANIELS
The town of Greenwood is being offered 84 acres of potential parkland at the "bargain sale" price of $200 an acre.

The offer has been prompted in part by the proliferation of McMansions popping up on ridgeline "view lots."

"I shudder every time I see another one of them go up," said "Grammy" Maggie Ring, who has lived among the hills of Greenwood since she was a small child.

The parcel she is offering to the town lies across the Greenwood Road from South Pond.

The land begins 1.4 miles south of the Howe Hill Road and its road/pond frontage extends for approximately 1,500 feet. (The frontage is broken by three small house lots that are not part of the parcel.)

From the lake the land, covered with a mixed hardwood and softwood forest, rises steeply to an altitude of approximately 1,100 feet, on the north slope of Peaked Mountain.

Nearby, at 1,095 feet, a distinct knoll affords panoramic views over South, North and Round ponds, as well as up the Alder River watershed into Bethel. (The knoll is clearly visible from Route 26. Looking across Round Pond from just west of the Gore Road, it appears between the slope of Peaked Mountain on the left and Mt. Abram on the right.)

The parcel is not far from Ring's own home, a mile to the north, across from Round Pond.

Grammy Maggie said she has had numerous offers for the land, including some from people eager to build on its heights.

But that's not how she wants the future to be.

"I've seen what they do," she said. "They clear cut themselves a view and ruin the beauty of the mountain."

Instead she wants to ensure that the land remains intact,

Town Meeting season kicks off:

Ladder truck and revaluation are the hot items in Newry

By ALISON ALOISIO

Voters at Newry's annual Town Meeting Monday will be asked to approve a budget that includes requests to borrow $550,000 for a new fire truck and raise $55,000 for a town revaluation.

The proposed municipal budget of $653,130 is $56,868 higher than last year's.

If voters approve the purchase of a new ladder truck for the Fire Department, the total cost of the bond would be $679,451, based on an estimated maximum interest rate of 4 percent.

Payments, however, would not begin until next year. Voters will also be asked to authorize taking $120,000 from the department's Capital Reserve Account to go toward the truck purchase. The total cost of the truck is $670,000.

The proposed revaluation comes sooner than would normally be expected after the last one, in 1997.

But like other towns, Newry has recently been experiencing a rapid increase in valuation, particularly for vacation homes.

Other budget requests include the first of five annual payments of $15,257 for capital improvements at the Tri-town Transfer Station; $10,000 for a watershed study for the Bear River; and up to $30,000 for the town to participate in the MDOT Transit Bonus Payment Program.

The transit money would be transferred from Unappropriated Surplus, to support the Mountain Explorer bus service. But any funds expended would be refundable to the town under the program, selectmen said.

Large-figure accounts up for regular approval include $130,000 for transfer station

PUBLIC NOTIFICATION TEMPORARY FLUORIDATION SUSPENSION

The fluoridation adjustment in your community drinking water will be temporarily suspended due to flooding of the treatment building caused by heavy rains on December 17 & 18, 2003.

Regulations require fluoride notification if fluoridation is below optimum range for a period of time greater than fourteen (14) days. The reason for the interruption of fluoridation is due to the fluoridation equipment being lost in the flood. Bethel Water District will notify the public by placing a similar ad in the Bethel Citizen when fluoridation is restored.

Those who wish to continue receiving the benefits of fluoride, without interruption, should contact their dentist or healthcare provider. Questions regarding this notice should be directed to: Bethel Water District at (207) 824-2342 or to the State of Maine Drinking Water Program at (207) 287-2070 or TDD (207) 287-2070 during normal business hours.

Cold weather, mutual aid calls have kept local firefighters busy this year

By ALISON ALOISIO

It's only two months into the year, and Greenwood Fire Chief Ray Seames has already spent half of his $10,000 annual operating budget.

That's because the Fire Department has had 19 calls since last year's payroll closed in mid-December. Fourteen of them have come since Jan. 1.

"Eight of the calls have been for structure fires, and include responses to the towns of Bethel, Newry, West Paris and Woodstock," said Seames. "Typically, we respond to 10 to 12 structure fires in the area for an entire year."

Many of the recent calls have also been labor intensive, he said, requiring

Woodstoves with inadequate clearances, run hot and long, are igniting nearby materials firefighters to remain on the scene for many hours.

"Our budget, which has yet to go to Town Meeting, is already being stretched," said Seames. "If it continues at this rate, it won't stand the strain."

He attributed some of the fires to factors connected to cold weather.

"Heating tapes and other types of heaters used to keep pipes from freezing often cause problems," he said. "A common problem we see is a woodburning appliance installed with inadequate clearances. The appliance often operates for years without problems until a stretch of exceptionally cold weather occurs. Then it is operated at higher than normal temperatures over an extended period of time, causing nearby combustibles to ignite."

"In addition, some chimneys this year appear to be accumulating an abnormal amount of creosote, perhaps due to the wide fluctuations

BAA ponders if plan for large hangar fits into airport's big picture

By MICHAEL DANIELS

A group of local aircraft owners has proposed building a large hangar at the Bethel Regional Airport, but before recommending the plan to the selectmen, the Bethel Airport Authority wants more information about the town's other options at the field.

The plan, from the Bethel Hangar Owners Association, calls for building a 295-by-83-foot hangar, large enough to house seven aircraft.

The BHOA proposes to locate the building between the former ASC hangar (now owned by Brian Cleary) and Davis Road, which serves as the airport access road.

To make room for the new building, the BHOA has requested the town remove the existing Quonset hangar and relocate now the present terminal building (which is already slated to be moved at some point).

The owners group is also asking that the town move ahead on obtaining funding for the expansion of the existing paved apron.

That expansion is called for in the current Airport Master Plan Update, and $450,000 to pay for the design (fiscal year 2004) and construction (FY 2005) is already in the pipeline from the Maine Department of Transportation and the Federal Aviation Administration.

The BHOA initially presented its proposal in January, and the BAA referred it to the town's airport engineering firm, Dufresne-Henry, for comment.

The owners group hoped last week to have the BAA recommend the proposal to

Falmouth teacher killed in Sunday River crash

By ALISON ALOISIO

A 38-year-old second-grade teacher from Falmouth died following a skiing collision last Thursday at Sunday River Ski Resort.

Jane McCormack was standing on the Tempest Trail when a 14-year-old boy on skis ran into her, according to the Oxford County Sheriff's Department.

She died of head injuries at Central Maine Medical Center in Lewiston after being LifeFlighted to that hospital. Neither skier was wearing a helmet. The boy, from Dover, Mass., received minor injuries.

McCormack was with a male friend when the accident happened, at about 12:30 p.m. In a television interview Saturday, he said two teenage skiers were

TO THE COMMUNITY OF NEWRY

To the Editor:

With Town Meeting only a few days away, we, the Newry Fire Department will be asking Newry residents once again to support our proposal for a new ladder truck. The time has come to focus on Newry's long-term fire protection needs and realize that current development is placing a strain on town services. It is not a matter of whether we need a ladder truck, because that day has passed; it's about how to obtain the needed equipment to do our job safely and efficiently.

We face many new challenges with the increasing development in our community. The majority of the new homes being built today average between 3,000 to 6,500 square feet and contain multiple stories. Within our community there are many areas that have a high density of large buildings closely together. To say that this ladder truck's only purpose is to protect Sunday River is incorrect. Currently, residential homes drive the need for a ladder truck more than Sunday River at this time. Newry needs a ladder truck, to effectively save lives, protect adjacent structures, increase firefighter safety and improve job performance.

Insurance Service Office, or ISO, plays a large role in determining insurance costs on a home or business. To reduce our current ISO rating from 9/10, with 10 being the highest rating, we will need to improve our fire apparatus, equipment and continue training to become more efficient. Newry is taking steps to lower the ISO rating by improving our fire apparatus, water source availability, fire equipment and creating stronger fire ordinances to provide a noticeable return in the form of lower insurance premiums. It may be time for Newry to consider imposing impact fees or growth restrictions on new development to better support town services.

In closing, our proposal will provide the community with a long-term solution that will increase personal safety in an affordable financial package. Our proposal should not be solely judged on one or two factors like the number of emergency calls we receive per year. Our proposal should be judged on the past and present growth trends, condition of our current apparatus, the size of our membership and number of people we protect. I write this on behalf of the Newry Fire Department membership.

Assistant Fire Chief

'NO' MEANS 'NO'

To the Editor:

Evidently the Town Manager of Bethel does not understand what the word "no" means.

The people of Bethel voted "no" to abolish the Bethel Police Department, but Scott Cole did not hear; he continued on with his own agenda. Trying to use Chief Tripp as a scapegoat to continue to try to bring in the Sheriff's Department at any cost. This is out of control, bordering on absurd.

It is causing all sorts of problems for the town employees. I am glad I do not work in this town right now. It must be hard to go to work and try to do a job with all of this going on around you.

I thought this situation was resolved and here we go again; it is time to resolve this issue once and for all so we all can get back to business and let Chief Tripp and our Police Department do the job they have been doing without any problems for years. Long before Mr. Cole was here and hopefully long after he is gone.

No matter how this all turns out there is a moral to all this mess. "No means No."

Jay Driscoll

SUPPORTS THE BPD, BUT ...

To the Editor:

It seems the popular belief is that Chief Tripp is a competent and respected police officer. Based upon what I've read, however, it seems that Chief Tripp may not be totally professional and may even be a bit complacent while on duty.

I can't think of a good reason for a police officer to forget to turn on his cell phone and/or pager after leaving court. At the very least it seems he would remember to turn them on when he turns his radio off.

Chief Tripp's subordinates and some others wrote letters on his behalf, and it certainly seems that he is qualified for his position. But I wonder why he gives up vacation time and takes calls at home. Most people enjoy being accepted by co-workers, friends, family and neighbors, but making himself available to them 24 hours a day could be why Chief Tripp perhaps became inattentive during his eight-hour shift. I'm also concerned that the department now has a "morale problem" (per said letter). Perhaps the chief has set the tone for this?

As a Bethel taxpayer I support a local police department, but I expect it to be headed by an individual who is above reproach. One can never be too diligent in a service position and, while anyone can become complacent over time, the reasons given for Chief Tripp's suspension and subsequent dismissal have given me cause for worry.

FAIR CHASE ACT REALITY CHECK

To the Editor:

This fall we will vote on the Fair Chase Act to prohibit the hunting of bear over bait, with dogs and trapping.

My husband is a registered Maine Guide. Harvesting bear two months out of the year, harvesting logs 10 months out of the year.

It amazes me the amount of people who will sit down to a nice steak, chicken, fish meat meal and don't give it a second thought. Surprise! It's dead. How easy do you think it is to feed animals every day for the purpose of providing you with the meat you put on your plate every day?

Have you ever visited a slaughterhouse? Day in and day out animals baited, then on one certain day they are off to the slaughterhouse — not a pleasant thought, right? But in order for an animal to be eaten it has to be killed. We are at the top of the food chain, remember?

Baiting a bear does not guarantee you will get one, a bear in its natural environment with excellent senses isn't as easy as it sounds. (Out of all the permits issued only 30 percent fill all their tags — a far cry from the 100 percent at the slaughterhouse.)

As far as hunting bear with dogs goes, far from easy. Until you have gone hunting using this manner don't assume it is as easy as some people would like you to believe. The tracking collars on the dogs don't help the dogs locate a bear. The collars are on the dogs for the dogs' protection. A lot of miles are put on trying to track the dogs down. There have been many times the dogs have been outrun. A bear is a very smart animal, but if we do not manage the numbers we will be overrun. No, we are not overrun now, but that's because they are well managed. The thought of these forms of hunting may not sit well with people — but it has to be done. No one is asking you to hunt this way yourself.

We are a hunting family; we eat what we harvest.

The hunters joining forces with the anti-hunting groups also amaze me. They've divided us right under your nose. Strength in numbers! What's that? That oak ridge you love to hunt will be considered a bait sight before you know it. Don't think so? Think again. If this gets passed, remember what side you are on. I thought "the Devil went down to Georgia," but I guess he swung through Maine first. Think about it. You don't have to hunt this way. But, don't prevent us.

This fall when it's time to vote, don't think about what it's like here now, think about the problems it will cause later when it's not managed. No, it's not scare tactics, it's the reality.

THEIR AIM IS TO STOP ALL HUNTING

To the Editor:

I am getting very alarmed by the clamor arising over bear hunting. This seems to be a very emotional issue for some people, especially those who view hunting in general as a cruel and inhumane sport. I think that for those who have grown up with Walt Disney it is very common to become quite anthropomorphic. It is almost as if they picture these animals reaching their eventual natural demise in a wooded meadow, birds chirping, surrounded by loved ones. The truth is actually quite different, as Mother Nature is an extremely cruel mistress. In the woods, natural causes mean something quite different than they do with people. Starvation is a leading killer of large animals here in Maine, with predation and road kills also playing large roles. Anyone who has spent a few minutes watching the Discovery Channel knows what death by coyotes or other predators is like for an animal. The truth of the matter is that these animals are for the most part going to die very unpleasant deaths, and in this context a clean kill with a gun or bow is certainly far more humane than what nature has in store for them.

I am also amused by those who cry foul over this situation because they claim it is unfair to the bears. It is these same people who will eat their cheeseburgers without giving a thought as to whether or not the cow had a fair chance of evading the slaughter. Meat does not come from behind the glass case of the butcher shop. Many animals had to be killed and butchered for them to have all of those nice antiseptic packages to choose from. This is a fact of life, and it is more than a little disingenuous for them to criticize hunting and then happily consume their steak dinners and Big Macs.

The truth be told, I hunt, although I do not personally hunt bear. My personal opinion is that this is just a first salvo in the war to ban hunting in toto. The stated goals of the anti-hunting groups are to take the hunters out of the woods, period. Those who think that these groups will stop at bear hunting are very misguided.

WOODSTOCK/MILTON G.O.P. CAUCUS

To the Editor:

Republican Caucus — Republicans from Milton Township and the Town of Woodstock are asked to attend the local caucus on Feb. 29 at 2 p.m. It will be held at the conference room in the Woodstock town office complex.

The purpose of the caucus is to elect officers of the local caucus, to elect a delegate to the Oxford County Committee, and to select three delegates and alternates and a chairman of the delegates from each municipality to attend the state convention to be held in Augusta on May 14 and 15.

All Republicans are urged to attend and exercise their rights and duties.

PICKING UP FIREWORKS COMMITTEE TORCH

To the Editor:

The Bethel Fireworks Committee was created by a group of citizens in the Bethel area, including Greenwood and Woodstock.

With only one or two exceptions, each business and/or individual that has been approached has enthusiastically supported, both in spirit and financially, an annual celebration of our independence, a celebration that cannot occur in many parts of the world.

The original concept was to continue the Fourth of July celebrations of premier New England towns in the past and in the present. In many small towns, the event is an all-day family affair, including luncheons, fun sports such as sack races and three-legged races, other games for children and families to celebrate together, a picnic on the common, and in many cases a visit by one or two sports celebrities. (One year we had a leading player from the pennant-winning Boston Braves to appear for the kids and sign autographs and auction off autographed baseballs. I still have mine, and it rests proudly on my desk.) With our proximity to the World Champion Patriots, and our local connection to the Boston Red Sox, this might be possible in our area in the future, also.

The Bethel Fireworks Committee was intended to be an interim mechanism to ensure continuity of the event until such time as either a permanent committee could be established, or the towns in the area could get together and cooperate to maintain and continue this recognition of the founding of our great country. It was never designed with the idea that one or two people should "carry the torch" forever.

If the people of our area wish this to take place, they should be willing to support it, either with some volunteer time (which would be minimal), or the funding.

Whether the area towns actively attempt to perpetuate this, or one or more groups, or new volunteers for the committee, it is my belief that if the people of the area feel that the independence of our great country warrants a special celebration of a special day, they should unite as our forefathers did and make it happen.

Please, make your wishes known.

Briefly

Chief's hearing set for March 9

BETHEL — The Bethel Board of Selectmen has scheduled a hearing for former Police Chief Darren Tripp's at 4 p.m. on Tuesday, March 9. Tripp is appealing his Feb. 12 firing by Town Manager Scott Cole.

Auditions set for "12 Dogs" movie

BETHEL — Local casting for the movie, "The 12 Dogs of Christmas" will begin next week in Bethel. The independent family film, directed by Academy Award winner Kieth Merrill and produced by Sundance Film Festival winners Sean Covey and Daenen Merrill, will be filming in and around Bethel for 32 days beginning in late March. The movie is set in the 1930's, and requires cars, locations and people to create a 1930's New England town. The local casting will include 12 speaking roles: the butcher, the shopkeeper, school bullies, villain's henchman, Life Magazine reporter, and Salvation Army carolers. Additionally, the movie requires featured extras including: 100 townspeople and Town Council (ages 35-85); 30 school children (ages 10-15); 15 school teachers (ages 18-60+); 20 additional featured extras (ages 10-100). Casting will take place at the Spring Street Dance Studio at the top of Main Street. Times are: Tuesday, March 2; 7:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.; Friday, March 5; 3 p.m. - 8 p.m.; Saturday, March 6; 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Tuesday, March 9; 7:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.; Friday, March 12; 3 p.m. - 8 p.m.; Saturday, March 13; 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. People interested should contact Bonnie Marshall at 824-2485 and consider themselves confirmed for an audition. Costumes are requested, but not mandatory to be cast. And because there will be 85 dogs in the picture, auditioners are asked to bring a picture of their dogs. As this is a low-budget independent film, there will be no pay, but meals will be provided.

Route 26 parking ban advised

WOODSTOCK — Town officials last week received a letter from the Maine Department of Transportation advising them to ban parking on Route 26 across from the town's baseball fields. MDOT engineer Brian Keezer wrote, "The parking situation along the shoulder of Route 26 was never intended to serve as a parking area, and should not be occurring due to safety concerns. This area should actually be designated by the Board of Selectmen through an ordinance as "No Parking Anytime." If this occurs, DOT can then install the appropriate signs. In the short term, all parking should be taking place along Lakeside Drive. For the long term, every effort should be made to construct a parking lot on the ballfield side of Route 26, with access to the parking area off Lakeside Drive. This would also alleviate the concerns with pedestrians crossing Route 26." Keezer's letter was in response to a request by the Woodstock Recreation Committee to reduce the speed limit by the ballfields. Said Keezer, "The speed limit is in effect 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, whereas events at the ballfield occur just a few months of the year for a few hours a day. Reducing the speed limit could adversely impact the flow of traffic through this section of road." He also declined to remove the passing lane there, another request by the committee. Vern Maxfield, Woodstock town manager, said selectmen would discuss Keezer's recommendation at their next regular meeting in March.

Town asks for MDOT roadwork

WOODSTOCK — Selectmen last week approved the submittal to MDOT of three requests for highway improvement projects in the town. In order of priority, they are: 1) reclaiming, ditching, resurfacing and straightening work on Route 232, from the intersection of a Route 26 bypass of Bryant Pond Village, or, as an alternative: 3) installation of a traffic signal or stop signs at the intersection of Railroad Street and Route 26 in Bryant Pond, and removal of buildings on the inside of the sharp curve in that location to improve the turning radius. The project proposals were submitted at the request of MDOT for consideration for inclusion in the FY 2006-2007 budget. Such proposals require a local funding match.

Faulkner looks at Trap Corner

WEST PARIS — Harry Faulkner, owner of the Backstage restaurant in Bethel, met with West Paris selectmen last week to tell them he was considering purchasing the building that formerly housed the Trap Corner Restaurant. Faulkner said if he did acquire the property, it would be divided into three areas: a woodworking shop, a gift shop and an apartment.

Voters to consider plow truck

WOODSTOCK — Voters at the annual Town Meeting will be asked to approve the purchase of a new Sterling plow truck for $93,000. Selectmen last week considered three bids submitted for the cab and chassis only: $52,278 for the Sterling from Whited Ford of Auburn; $61,700 for an International from Morrison-Sylvester of Auburn; and $63,000 for a Mack from O'Connor of Augusta. An additional $40,000 would be needed for the body and plow equipment.

Preliminary Route 2 work started

BETHEL/GILEAD — Work on highway construction projects to improve two sections of Route 2 in Bethel and Gilead has begun, according to the Maine Department of Transportation. "The utilities along the project have begun the work they need to do before the heavy construction can begin," said Emmie Merrill, MDOT construction manager for both projects. Project work will include grading and drainage improvements, recycling of existing pavement, new concrete culvers, guard rail and curbing improvements, retaining walls where necessary and new trees and shrubs. The project was awarded to H.E. Sargent Inc. of Stillwater, on a bid of just under $7.5 million. The anticipated completion date for all work on both projects is Oct. 1, 2005.

Family-to-Family course returns

RUMFORD — After a four-year hiatus, Diane Farnum, a local mental health advocate and nationally-certified family educator, will again present the NAMI Family-to-Family Education Program. The 12-week course will be co-taught by Rhonda Buker of Newry. It will begin Tuesday, March 9. The course is designed for parents, spouses, siblings, teen/adult children, partners and other loved ones of persons with serious mental illness. Sessions will cover the latest information on major mental illnesses, coping skills, basic medication, brain function, listening and communication skills, recover and self-care. There is no cost, but space and class size are limited. Pre-registration is required. For more information call 824-3076 or 369-0542.

Auction to benefit eighth-graders

BETHEL — An auction to benefit five Telstar Middle School eighth-grade students who wish to attend the People to People World Leadership Conference in Washington D.C. will take place Saturday, March 6, at 7 p.m. in the Telstar Auditorium. The preview will be from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Dr. David Murphy will be the auctioneer.

From the Bethel Police Log:

Tuesday, Feb. 17

At 4 p.m. police received a report that children were sliding down the railing at a church and landing in the road.

Wednesday, Feb. 18

At 1:03 p.m. police responded to an accident at the intersection of the Parkway and Walker Mills Road. One vehicle was in the turning lane on Walker Mills Road, preparing to turn left. The second vehicle, at the stop sign, did not see the first vehicle, and struck it on the rear bumper.

Friday, Feb. 20

At 11:44 p.m. police noted roads in Bethel were becoming very slippery. The officer advised the Sheriff's Office to notify MDOT and the Bethel town crew.

Saturday, Feb. 21

At 12:10 p.m. police were called to a two-vehicle accident on Route 26. While enroute, the officer was advised that both vehicles had fled the scene, one heading north and the other south. The officer stopped an oncoming vehicle, but found no damage. At the accident site, there was no evidence of damaged vehicles or of significant damage to a telephone pole struck by one of them. Bethel Fire and Rescue had cleared the scene, and the officer did also.

To reach the Bethel Police Department, call 911 in emergency situations, 824-3437 in non-emergencies.

and available for the public to enjoy.

In fact, she hopes the town might make it even more convenient for people to access.

"Mrs. Ring's intent is that such land be dedicated to public use as a parkland for the benefit of Greenwood residents, guests and the general public," her attorney, Bruce Rood of Norway, wrote in a letter to the Greenwood Board of Selectmen.

"Mrs. Ring's vision is that the town would purchase the premises at a reduced price, construct outhouse facilities, adequate parking, walking or hiking trails and perhaps a kiosk providing information pertaining to the location as a stage coach stop. Nevertheless, she remains open to suggestions by the town in that regard," Rood wrote.

The parcel would be off-limits to motorized vehicles, Rood said, except for fire suppression or in conjunction with its traditional forestry activities, "supervised by a licensed professional forester, aimed at maintaining safety, deriving limited revenue and being guided by park aesthetics and forest management practices."

These stipulations would be embodied into a conservation easement on the property.

Greenwood Town Manager Carol Whitman said town selectmen are expected to discuss the proposal at their regular meeting Tuesday, March 2.

Any questions they may have will be referred to Rood, she said, with the anticipation that if all goes well the matter could be put to voters at a special Town Meeting later this year. (The proposal comes too late to be put on the agenda for the annual Town Meeting on March 27, Whitman said.)

The purchase price Grammy Maggie is asking for the 84-acre parcel is $16,800.

Fires

in temperature we've experienced."

Other departments busy
And as Greenwood goes, so often goes the Woodstock Fire Department, thanks to mutual aid agreements. The two departments often respond together to calls in their towns.

"We've had 15 calls since Jan. 1," said Woodstock chief Bill Seames. "We average 45 a year."

He said he thinks more people than usual are burning wood this year, because of the higher price of oil.

But besides the weather-related factors, Seames also looks at the big picture when it comes to the frequency of calls. "We tend to go in streaks," he said.

Ray Seames acknowledged that a streak of fire-less weeks could turn things around and save his budget. "We might not have another call for two or three months. The bottom line is that we won't know until later in the year."

Fire chiefs Jim Young and Gary Wight of Bethel and Newry, respectively, also said their call rate is higher than usual this year.

But, said Young, his calls have not been terribly time-consuming, and therefore have not significantly impacted his budget so far.

Mutual aid a necessity
Ray Seames said that the general decline in numbers of volunteer firefighters in recent years and the increasing requirements for their training continues to force fire chiefs to regularly call on mutual aid to turn out enough manpower.

We go out on mutual aid calls more often than in the past and we also receive mutual aid more often, he said. Part of the reason is budget. Fire departments in this area have specialized in equipment rather than duplicating the equipment in the town next door. That saves taxpayers money.

The flip side of the coin is that neighbors are more likely to call neighbors to access that special equipment. Part of the reason is personnel. In the 1970s, Greenwood had 27 firefighters including a dozen qualified interior attack personnel. Today we have 13 on our roster and only four of those are qualified for interior attack.

Daytime response is especially difficult and it may take four or five towns to get enough interior attack personnel. Some employers are reluctant to let employees go but more often the firefighter is simply working in another town and is not available.

Seames also said that structural fires today require more manpower and more training because firefighters face more heat, more toxic vapors, and more hidden dangers than at any time in the past.

And, he said, every patient extrication at a vehicle accident presents numerous hazards to the rescuer as well as the victim. It simply takes more people to get the job done.

the town selectmen, who will make the final decision on whether to accept it.

The BAA members, however, opted to ask Dufresne-Henry to look further into a variety of variables regarding the proposal, and on the impact of those variables on the future build-out of the airport.

Space utilization was at the top of the list of considerations.

"We're going to be out of space there before we know it," said BAA member Arlan Jodrey. "I think we really have to do a lot of thinking so we can maximize the space we have. I see us in 15 to 20 years being all built out with nowhere to go."

"We need to explore all alternatives," Jodrey said. "This deserves some serious consideration."

Other factors

There are also other questions — for example, regarding the impact of the new building and associated paved areas on existing DEP permits; and on the extent to which the MDOT/FAA apron funding could be used to accommodate the hangar.

And money could be an issue.

BAA member John Head pointed out that the town currently receives $2,400 a year in rental fees from the Quonset, but at 20 cents annually per square foot, the BHOA's hangar would generate only $2,141.70.

BHOA members, however, argued that the shortfall would be more than made up by other additional revenues to the town, especially fuel sales.

(The 20-cent-per-foot figure is what the town is charging for two other private hangars currently under construction. The rate was set by the selectmen after considerable debate.)

Another meeting planned

At the conclusion of last week's discussion, the BAA agreed to schedule a special meeting as soon as Dufresne-Henry has had time to look further into such factors.

If the Airport Authority ultimately recommends the proposal, and the selectmen approve it, the hangar plan must still be approved by the town Planning Board.

That possibly drawn out timetable worried BHOA member Peter Nesbada.

"Quite honestly, if you get three or four months down the road this is not a viable project for this year," he said. "What I'm concerned about is seeing study and restudy go on, only to come to the point where we still don't have enough information."

(Note: two BAA members, Randy Autrey and Dr. John Mason also belong to the BHOA. Both stepped down from the board for last week's discussion.)

The Historical Society Museum has a large bust of Abraham Lincoln on exhibit this year. It will be near the door to greet visitors. You are sure to enjoy this fine sculpted piece. Society members are really dedicated and work hard to serve the public. They want you to benefit from the society's offerings. At the February meeting a video on lighthouses called "Light Spirits" was supplied by Paul Billings and Vicki May. They also gave all the members valentine mugs. Curator Larry Billing gave a report on love and understanding. Olive Risko presented a research report on the four chaplains who gave their lives for others in a sea disaster as an example of love. Vicki May was elected clerk of the corporation. Ruth Cox will present the next program. Mary Billings and Elena Noyes provided refreshments. More members were at the February meeting and the members were delighted. Attendance is often an issue for small societies. With the fine museum they have, they need more people to help sustain it. President Olive Risko talked about a calendar for fundraiser. The museum needs a new chemical toilet and they cost close to $1,000. There is always something more to do. You are welcome to come and help. They need everyone. The society has an opportunity at the beginning of the 21st Century to rejuvenate Western Maine's appreciation of its considerable heritage.

Upton

by Eleanor LeComte

Last week, I escaped the clamor and din of Upton to the peaceful quietude of New York City. Boy, was I wrong. It was an escape but definitely not quiet. As the guest of Barbara and Clyde Stratton, Carolyn and Carl Taylor and myself, spent a wonderful weekend in Eatontown, N.J. and at the Manhattan Club in New York City. We attended "Chicago" at the Ambassador Theater and the "cabin fever" just "razzle, dazzled" away. We dined at the "La Bon Soup" and sampled cheese cake at Lindys. I worked at the Mt. Sinai Hospital on Fifth Avenue many years ago, and I must say the city has changed tremendously. It's cleaner and the people were friendly and hospitable. Thank you, my friend, for a great time.

Again, we are proud of our Upton kids. Jennie Bernier is on the dean's list at U.M. Farmington. At Telstar, Jennifer Aldrich achieved high honors. Tyler Aldrich and Michelle Aron earned honors. "Atta Boy and Atta Girls" of the week go to them.

February is a month with birthdays of many notables. Included on the list with George Washington and Abe Lincoln are Evelyn, who is thirty nine again and Frank Clifford who is finally eligible for A.A.R.P. Remember wisdom comes with age. You are not getting older, you're getting smarter.

The State Line Snowmobile Club met at the Ladies Aid on

Feb. 21. Simone Lavallee, Sue Angevine and Debbie Judkins prepared the hall for a warm, comfortable meeting. Before they put their loving touch to it you could make ice cream or hang a deer in the building and both would be frozen solid.

Liz Stanczyk came out of retirement at the Balsams Hotel to relieve a friend who is ill.

The deer continue to parade up and down Mill Road. They appear good and healthy. Several does are showing signs of motherhood, or maybe they have been feeding themselves on Joy's arborvitae again.

The wind has subsided and snowmobiling, though bumpy, has improved on the lake. Cross-country skiing is pretty good, according to Paul and Jennifer Casey.

Rick Angevine and his dad, Dick, snowmobiled from opposite sites to meet at Silver Stream Road in Grafton. Dick met Gene Wixom. Larry Nelson and Jim Kenney on the trail.

There will be a political rally at Tyler Cove for Ralph Nader on Super Tuesday. Thousands are expected to attend. It will be postponed to April first if the weather reaches 20 below zero.

I haven't had time to "Bird Watch," so I will have to dig one up. How about "Tweety Bird," "Woody Woodpecker" or "Daffy Duck"? — it's your call.

February is a month with birthdays of many notables. Included on the list with George Washington and Abe Lincoln are Evelyn, who is thirty nine again and Frank Clifford who is finally eligible for A.A.R.P. Remember wisdom comes with age. You are not getting older, you're getting smarter.

Feb. 21. Simone Lavallee, Sue Angevine and Debbie Judkins prepared the hall for a warm, comfortable meeting. Before they put their loving touch to it you could make ice cream or hang a deer in the building and both would be frozen solid.

Liz Stanczyk came out of retirement at the Balsams Hotel to relieve a friend who is ill.

The deer continue to parade up and down Mill Road. They appear good and healthy. Several does are showing signs of motherhood, or maybe they have been feeding themselves on Joy's arborvitae again.

The wind has subsided and snowmobiling, though bumpy, has improved on the lake. Cross-country skiing is pretty good, according to Paul and Jennifer Casey.

Rick Angevine and his dad, Dick, snowmobiled from opposite sites to meet at Silver Stream Road in Grafton. Dick met Gene Wixom. Larry Nelson and Jim Kenney on the trail.

There will be a political rally at Tyler Cove for Ralph Nader on Super Tuesday. Thousands are expected to attend. It will be postponed to April first if the weather reaches 20 below zero.

I haven't had time to "Bird Watch," so I will have to dig one up. How about "Tweety Bird," "Woody Woodpecker" or "Daffy Duck"? — it's your call.

the school on March 2. There is still time to buy tickets. All the stores have tickets to sell, and the students are selling them, too. The committee wants to thank Akers Ski and Chase Cyclery for their generous donations that made this raffle possible.

Our Bicentennial Carnival Ball is this weekend, Feb. 28 and 29. The committees have put a lot of time and effort into making this a really great occasion. Please plan to attend as many events as you can. I've heard that the judges for the Snowman Contest that is to be held on Sunday are going to be very difficult to please, but I think that maybe they can be bribed — hot chocolate and cookies might do the trick. Just kidding, the judges are very, very good and are kindly donating their time to judge for this event. They are fairly new arrivals to Andover, and we thank them for helping. We got some new snow last weekend so that ought to help make great snowmen.

The Poy family had a very nice visit from their friends, the Goode family, last week. They all tried cross-country skiing, and no one ended up in a snow bank. They had a baked bean supper to end their visit, with a really great chocolate cake for dessert.

Speaking of cake, how come when you mix water and flour together you get glue? And then you add eggs, milk and sugar and you get a cake. Question: Where did the glue go? Need an answer? You know darned well where it went. It is what makes the cake stick to your hips, thighs, and butt.

Town Meeting will be held on Saturday, March 20, this year. Starting time is 9 a.m. The Bicentennial Committee is putting on a lunch again this year. You should have your Town Reports soon. They are at the printer's now. Just think, February is almost over, even with an extra day this year. Spring is just around the corner and I can hardly wait. See ya.

Another week gone by, not too much going on around here.

Children were home from school last week. Carl and Betty Curtis had some of their grandchildren visiting them.

Marie and Albert Curtis Sr. visited some of her family and also some of their friends last weekend at Sumner and Hartford.

I had several phone calls from my great-nephew and some of my grandchildren, also my son, Kenneth, of Kentucky. It is good, as I can keep up on news of the families.

Seems good that the days are getting longer. We sure have a lot of birds around now; some real small birds — don't know what they are. They are pretty.

Just had a phone call from Colista Morgan. She said she was feeling good. Always glad to hear from her.

Brad Payne went up to Moosehead snowmobiling. David, Sally and Mary Holt of Norway, Robert Holt of Windsor and Ann Holt were all at Leonas and Fay Holt's for dinner Sunday.

Quote of the week: "Thoughts, recipes, ancestry and history not shared are soon forever lost."

Have a safe and happy week and stay warm.

Thought for this week: "A who will spend a couple of days looking for pills to prolong his life, and then drive 90 miles an hour to make up the time he lost."

Gretchen and Bill Straus and their daughter, Melissa, of Waterville spent a weekend recently in Newry snowmobiling, rode to the Great Grizzly Restaurant for lunch and had supper with Bill and Sylvia Wight, Gretchen's parents.

Kevin and Polly and Mandi Karvats of the Mahosuc Guide Service were guests of Bill and Sylvia Wight one day recently.

The Snowmobile Club's annual supper at the Grange Hall was a huge success. A great crowd showed up to enjoy the oyster stew and spaghetti, etc. Thank you all.

"Sun rises at 7:30 a.m. at North Newry and sets over the mountain at 3:30 p.m."

We have enjoyed some warm and

and some very cold nights. It is February and the weather changes not just daily but every few hours. The snowstorm last weekend didn't amount to a whole lot. We had to get our driveway plowed, but other than that a little shoveling — roof, stairs, Tasha's doghouse, etc; it wasn't much of a storm here. I am glad. There was enough for the plow guys to be happy and not so much that everything got canceled. It was still vacation so no school was cancelled. Now the schools are open again.

Thursday, the 26th, is Mountain Poets Society February meeting. It is at the Fare Share Commons on 477 Main Street in Norway. Come and join us and read your work or someone else's. All are welcome.

Those fees have not been set but should be in effect in April. Keep your eyes and ears posted. These fees will help the town to dispose of the items without the town having to bear the burden. Individuals will be responsible for paying for their own trash this way. This is already

by Dana & Sheila Dyke

Greetings and hello from Albany Township. The kids are back at school after their weeklong vacation and all is quiet on the home front.

We want to thank Wyatt Ward for plowing our driveway this winter. We appreciate the help.

Also, thanks to Pastor Ed Gammon for stopping by this weekend with the pictures of the kids. It was nice seeing the pastor as well as the pictures of all the kids having fun together.

In case anyone is interested, there is a supper going on at the Grace Fellowship Church in Oxford Saturday evening starting at 5:30. All are welcome, and there is entertainment to follow.

Best wishes for a happy and safe week.

God Bless and Keep.

BOSTON POST CANE RECIPIENT
Woodstock selectmen Monday presented the Boston Post Cane to Edith Hathaway. The cane is traditionally given to a town's oldest resident. Hathaway was born Dec. 8, 1907, two years before towns started awarding the cane. With her are (from left) Town Manager Vern Maxfield and selectmen Steve Bies, Leon Poland and Percy Monk. Relatives who attended the presentation were Phyllis Jordan, Ray Jordan Jr., Vance Jordan, Harriet Estes, Debbie Millett, Elaine Newell and Burton Hathaway.

West Paris

by Bertha DeHaas

Hope you all had a good week and happy Valentine's Day.

On Friday evening, Feb. 13, the West Paris Baptist Church held their annual Valentine's Day supper at Maurice's. There were 15 of us in attendance for a very delicious meal and a pleasant evening of fellowship.

Saturday saw 14 of us up at Franklin Grange for a Valentine's Day program and luncheon. A 55-year certificate was presented to Sterling Mills of Bryant Pond. A valentine making contest was held and the winners were: Helvi Carey, prettiest; Russell Yates, funniest; most romantic, Laura Hutchins; most original, Olive Risko and most traditional, Jackie Stevens. Music and original poetry rounded out the program.

Sunday afternoon, Richard G. Felt, Lou Newcomb, Irving

Cole, Yvonne Nowlin, Jackie Stevens, Bertha DeHaas and Phyllis Bancroft provided an afternoon of musical entertainment for the residents of the Veterans' Home in South Paris. Had a quite good crowd for this including Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allen, who came up for the afternoon. Clarence set up and took down all the chairs for this.

Sunday evening saw us at the North Paris Federated Church on the hill in North Paris for a "Singspiration" program followed by a delicious buffet luncheon (including Finnish nisseau and cream puffs). A wonderful time was had by all. The music, especially the piano, organ duet and a double piano duet was delightful. What a real blessing it all was. Music is the universal language.

Our sincere condolences go out to Lois Witham Piirainen and all the family on the death of her sister, Sybil Witham Smith of Great Falls, N.Y. Burial will be in Pleasant Valley Cemetery in the spring. Sybil was a wonderful Christian cousin and friend. I shall miss her, too.

Seems like we have lost a great many relatives and friends this past year and classmates, too. It reminds us of our own mortality and how frail is that thread of life. It can be all over in a heartbeat. We need to remember the good times and look forward to a new and better life in the life hereafter, where dwells the Father of us all.

On Tuesday afternoon, members of the Ring-McKee Post 151 American Legion Auxiliary (Cleo Ryonson, Anna Swan and Bertha DeHaas) put on the February birthday party at the Veterans' Home on High Street, South Paris. Those with February birthdays were David Whynot, Philip Boutin, Bob Buzzell, Bill Jones, Charles LeCasse, Harold Gleason and Rita Gallant. Gifts were given out to each of them. Refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream and orange punch were enjoyed. Some of the staff helped serve the refreshments. Music for this event was provided by Lona, Bill and Eddie Bedard and David Sanderson. A wonderful afternoon was had by all. Seems like this month is really flying by quickly. There were storms Friday, Saturday and Sunday last week — a good time to pop some popcorn, play board games and read a good book.

See you all next week.

Friday is much better temperature wise. Only two of us walked.

It was 21 degrees with no wind and very pleasant. Several of the walkers are in Florida, one plays bridge on Friday mornings, one had a meeting away, and two are ill with the bad cold going around. As it gets warmer we will get back to our normal group.

The worship service at the West Paris Universalist Church starts at 9 a.m. Guest speaker for Feb. 29 will be Shirley Miller of the South Paris U.U. Church. Jim Burke is organist. Coffee hour follows.

Alder River Grange will have a regular meeting on Feb. 27 at Lynn Mason-Courtney's home on Tyler Street. There will be a 6 p.m. soup and the meeting at 7 p.m.

Florence Hastings spent the 14th and 15th at Dave and Ann Morton's home in Woodstock. Pam Rowinski and her two children were visiting from Colorado.

On Feb. 16, there was a family gathering at Florence Hastings' home. There were four children and their spouses, four grandchildren and their spouses and eight great-grandchildren. They came from Maine areas, Colorado and England. The supper was potluck.

Florence Hastings had 25 people visit on Feb. 22. There were four children and their spouses, four grandchildren and their spouses and 10 great-grandchildren from different areas.

This supper was also potluck. This saved a lot of cooking on Florence's part.

On Feb. 15, Dave and Ann Morton and Florence Hastings went to visit Emma Morton in Standish.

Nancy Kimball attended the Bethel Senior Citizens Club meeting on Feb. 11 at the West Parish Congregational Church in Bethel.

Kassandra Haines made the honors list in the seventh grade for the second quarter at Telstar Middle School.

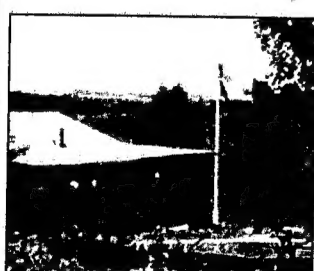

Charles Haines made the honors list in the ninth grade for the second quarter at Telstar High School.

Lee Dean entertained her nephew, the Rev. Everett Bunker and friend at lunch this week.

Beverly Stevens is ill at her home with a bad cold. Nancy Willard of Bryant Pond is also ill with a cold. Several people are reported ill with the same kind of illness. Hopefully all will be much better soon.

At the West Paris Universalist Church on Thursday, Feb. 26, at the Cabin Fever Countdown, the Rev. Joy Gasta will lead a discussion on aging. Short readings will guide us to raise questions, possibilities and hopes about our attitudes. It starts at 1 p.m. and refreshments will be served. On March 4 Nancy Willard will lead the group in Tai Chi. All are welcome.

Ivan Proctor has returned to his home in the Town and Country Mobile Home Park in Norway after spending time at Market Square Nursing Home. He is gaining. His daughters are assisting him.

Beryl Bonney accompanied me to Auburn Shaw's for groceries and helped me fill my basket, for it had been a while since we had shopped. Buffy had run out of tuna and only had dry and canned "cat" food. Then to Penney's for me to try on lightweight slacks to take on my trip abroad in April. No luck there.

We now have an address for Phyllis Young, who is near her son John. She is at Nathaniel Witherall, Room 425B, 70 Parsonsfield Road, Greenwich, Conn. 06830. By phone she sounds good and says she is eating well.

A basket bingo for the benefit of the West Paris Library Building Fund will be held at the Locke Mills Legion Hall on March 7. Doors open at 11 a.m. and bingo starts at 1 p.m. Refreshments will be available.

Warmer weather and sun have greeted Buffy outside, encouraging him to stay out more. A bit of blacktop is bare at the garage door giving him a warmer spot to nap.

Hanover

by Clem Worcester

Louise Worcester returned home from Central

Maine Medical Center last Thursday. She continues to recuperate and says she is feeling better.

It has been reported that Raymond Chase has returned home following a winter vacation in Florida.

The Hanover Selectboard met on Feb. 16 to conduct their monthly meeting. It was a fairly routine meeting with the usual hearing of reports and discussions of issues that affect the function of town business. Near the end of the meeting Chairman Bruce Powell said that it had been decided that with all the volunteering that takes place in Hanover that the town would recognize one individual each year as Volunteer of the Year.

Robert P. Fortin was named the 2003 Volunteer of the Year in Hanover. Always willing to give a helping hand Bob is the Hanover representative on the Tri-Town Solid Waste and Recycle Board and the Oxford County Regional Solid Waste Board as well as a member of the Route 2 Corridor Committee. He is also a member of the Hanover Planning Board. Bob and his wife, Elsie, live in their Main Street home.

The Hanover Neighborhood Watch had the first meeting for 2004 on Monday, Feb. 16. Guest speaker was Animal Control Officer Ozzie Hart. He talked about the various aspects of his job and the care of animals. He works closely with local police departments, the state police, and the sheriff's department. Mr. Hart is animal control officer for Hanover as well as several area towns.

Local members of the Knights of Pythias traveled to Machiasport to institute a new lodge on Feb. 21. The new lodge will be known as Down East Lodge 77 and will meet Wednesdays at the Machiasport Fire Station. Usually we hear about lodges that are closing, and it was welcome news that a new lodge is starting. Those assisting the effort from our area were Orville Meisner and Freeman Farrington from Andover, Craig Turner and Clem Worcester of Hanover and Danny Bennett from Milton Township.

There was enough news this week so we didn't have to write about the weather, which was a mess last weekend.

FORTIN IS HANOVER'S FIRST VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR—Hanover officials presented the first-ever Volunteer of the Year Award at their monthly meeting on Feb. 16. Shown in the picture is Robert Fortin, holding his Volunteer of the Year certificate. He also received a lapel "Volunteer" pin. Fortin actively assists work projects in Hanover and he also represents the town on the Tri-Town Solid Waste and Recycle Board, Oxford County Regional Solid Waste Board, Hanover Planning Board and the Route 2 Corridor Committee. He is retired from the Rumford paper mill. Shown with Fortin are members of the Hanover Selectboard (from left), Scott Gould; Bruce Powell, chairman; and Brenda Lee Gross.

From

Oxford County

Democrats

The Oxford County Democrats will announce the complete slate of delegates and alternates to the May Democratic State Convention at their upcoming meeting to be held on Thursday, Feb. 26, at the Eagles Hall on Oxford Street in Rumford. County Chairperson Cathy Newell will also announce the list of newly elected town chairpersons for the county.

The meeting will begin at 5:30 p.m. with a beef stew supper. Tickets will be $4 per person.

The business meeting will start at 6:30 p.m. with a briefing on Maine's Dirigo Health Plan by Adam Thompson of the Office of Health Policy, followed by the business meeting of the County Committee. Anyone interested in electing Democrats in 2004 is welcome to attend.

There was an excellent turnout on Feb. 12, to hear Jack Richardson talk about his work in the FBI. It was very interesting and we send our thanks and appreciation to Jack, for sharing his time and expertise with us.

On Thursday, March 11, our special guest will be local author Pat Stewart. She has written a book about Mollyocket from a different perspective than most. The program is from 10 to 11 a.m., is open to the public, and is free of charge. Mark your calendar. These programs are super.

We continue to work to encourage people to use the library. Our librarian, Althea Hathaway, has spruced up the front room. So, in addition to our lovely children's addition, we have a second comfortable room to enjoy. We have a new Dell computer for public use.

A very sincere thank you to Tom and Genneth Berryment, who donated a video return drop box in memory of their son, Troy Berryment.

We are beginning to purchase DVDs along with videos and, of course, new books. New DVDs are: Finding Forrester, Cast Away, Entertainment, Nutty Professor II, and Stuart Little.

Books for adults are: "True Honor," Dee Henderson; "The Betrayal," Beverly Lewis; "High Calling," Evelyn Hubbard; "Crown Jewel," Taylor Bradford; "Emma's Secret," Barbara Taylor; "Some Kind of Miracle," Iris Rainer Dart; "Twilight of Tenderfoot," Diane Ackerman; "Holly," Jude Deveraux; and "Blood Canticle," Anne Rice.

In anticipation of another summer story hour, and because many pre-school children are visiting the library, we have purchased several children's books. "The Adventures of Harold" and the "Purple Crayon," Crockett Johnson; A Harold and the Purple Crayon Treasury, adapted

From the

Gilead Bicentennial Committee

On Feb. 21, Bog Brook Training Facility in Gilead was the setting for another successful fundraiser for the June Celebration. The Spaghetti Supper was well attended despite the weather and bad roads. Everyone had a great time, and there was plenty of good food to eat and lots of visiting going on. There were two door prizes drawn for each dinner seating. Jody Morin, who was there with several members of his family, won the first door prize. Steve McLain, longtime resident and ongoing supporter of the Bicentennial, was the winner of the door prize at the second seating. Both door prizes were copies of pictures of Gilead from years past.

The committee would like to thank all those loyal friends and neighbors for braving the bad weather to attend our Spaghetti Supper. We really do appreciate your continued support.

Congratulations to the winners of the raffle for the two Bethel Inn gift vouchers. They were Frank Watson, Gilead (dinner for two at the Tavern), and Penny Knox, Bethel (dinner for two in the dining room). Thanks to The Bethel Inn and Country Club for their donation of the two gift vouchers.

The committee continues to work hard to insure that the 200th birthday celebration for the Town of Gilead on June 26, 2004 will be a success. We would like to invite any interested people to join us and help us make this happen. Contact any one of the committee members if you would like to take part in the planning of this event. Every little bit you can contribute will help.

The next meeting of the committee will be at Bog Brook on March 13 at 3 p.m.

Committee members are: Hugh and Lin Chapman, Bev Corriveau, Howard and Stevie Reiche, Don Katlin, Bill and Gale Tout, Alice Strait, Joe Taylor, Richard and Sue Saunders, Julia Jones, Jody Shimamura

Maine Kanteles

Ancient sounds will echo anew when the Maine Kanteles entertain with their traditional Finnish lap harps, an instrument dating back about 2000 years, at the Community Arts Center, 155 Emery Street, Berlin, N.H. on Sunday, Feb. 29, at 2 p.m. This concert is presented as part of the Northern White Mountain Chamber of Commerce Winterfest Celebration.

Director Stanley R. Howe, who holds a Ph.D. in Canadian history and has written and lectured widely on New England and Canadian history, will be the instructor.

The four-session course is open to all interested persons. The course fee for non-members of the society is $20 and for members $15. The fee can be paid at the first session of the course. Anyone wishing to enroll should call the society office at 824-2908 or (800) 824-2910 or e-mail: info@bethelhistorical.org.

At the O'Neil Robinson House, Grace McKivergan demonstrated weaving, Jackie Cressy quilting, and Jan Todd spinning. A number of historical videos were shown through the afternoon. The exhibits on Bethel and "Wood and Woods" were also open for viewing. Jean Owen operated the museum shop.

Many thanks are due all the volunteers who made this day such a success despite the inclement weather.

The newest Bethel Historical Society Winter/Spring course, "Four Centuries of Canada and Northern New England" will begin on Thursday, March 11 at 7:30 p.m. and continue on March 25, April 15 and April 29 at the society's Robinson House. The course will focus on the long relationship between these two regions, which were not always peaceful. A number of colorful characters on both sides of the border are part of the story as well. Eleven women perform on the instruments and will also sing in both Finnish and English. They have been performing together since the group formed in November 2000. The group has received the honor of being the first American kantele group to be invited to perform at the annual Kantele Festival in Finland in June.

According to Sarah Cummings-Ridge of Gray, and leader of the group, the kantele is a traditional Finnish lap harp with a history rooted in the Kalevala, the national epic of Finland. The kantele is considered to be a Finnish cultural symbol and is played in schools, universities and concert halls around the world. The ancient stringed kantele, classed as a cordophone, creates a unique tonal world like no other instrument. The effect is more enhanced when a group of people play the kantele together. Cummings-Ridge added, "in the folklore of Finland, when the creator of the kantele began to play, all of nature came to listen."

Advance tickets for this concert are $8, available from the Chamber of Commerce office on Main Street, Berlin. Tickets at the door are $10.

Notes from

SAD44 Adult Ed

The Learning Center has been quite busy this winter. Several students are working on completing their GED and taking courses for their High School Completion Diploma. We will be starting Algebra I-Tier 2 in March. This class will continue where Basic Algebra left off. This class will include basic geometry, graphing and quadratic equations. The course is worth one credit toward completion of a high school diploma. It is also a great way to refresh your algebra skills for personal enrichment or for college brush-up. The only costs involved are the books and/or materials fees.

The University College, University of Maine System, started up the spring semester in January with many students enrolled in a variety of courses. Offerings for the summer session have been posted on the university Web site (www.learn.maine.edu).

There are several community education courses coming up that still have room.

Stained Glass with Robin Fraser, for beginners and the advanced student, is being offered on March 4, 6 to 9 p.m. and will run for 10 weeks. Beginner kits are available for purchase. Learn a new skill or continue to develop the one you have.

Quilt Smart-Lone Star, taught by Marcia Greene, will start on March 10, 6 to 8 p.m., and run for four weeks. This is for the small 38-inch star and will make a wall hanging. Add a border for a baby or lap quilt.

New hours: The Learning Center will be open Monday thru Thursday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The Computer Lab will be open on Monday and Wednesday evenings, 5:30 to 8:30 p.m., and Tuesday and Thursday mornings, 9 a.m. to noon.

Please call the Adult Education Office at 824-2780 to register for classes or to ask questions regarding High School Completion, GED or college credit courses.

"What are some of the signs of substance abuse?"

"What can I do to prevent my children from abusing alcohol?"

Did You Know?

If drinking is delayed until age 21, a child's risk of serious alcohol related problems is decreased by 70 percent. If drinking is not delayed until 21, research shows that youth are more likely to develop alcohol problems, according to the National Longitudinal Alcohol Epidemiologic Survey.

Your dreams your future your college!

Make it happen at the College for Lifelong Learning

Thinking about college?
Ask some smart questions

You're ready to pursue an associate or bachelor's degree—so how do you choose the right college? First, get answers to some important questions:

Is financial aid available for part-time students? At CLL, you can be eligible for financial aid even if you're only taking one 4-credit course.

Has tuition gone up? Is it going to increase again next year? CLL has kept tuition the same since 2002, and we'll keep it that way until at least 2005. What other college can say that?

How can I get advice and help when I want it? Your personal CLL advisor works with you 1-on-1 to plan your studies, talk about your goals, and connect you with the resources you need—from your first day through graduation.

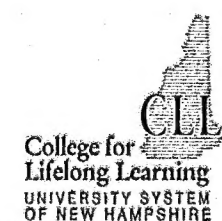

Open House at Sunday River

Obituaries

JON B. GREBANIER

Jon B. Grebanier, 50, died Wednesday, Feb. 18, 2004 at the Rumford Community Hospital after a long illness.

Born in New York City on Sept. 22, 1953, he was the son of Joseph and Lillian (Greenberg) Grebanier. He studied the cello at the High School of Music and Art and attended Queensborough College for environmental studies. He also attended schools for piano tuning and locksmithing.

He was a self-employed housepainter by day and a musician, songwriter and composer by night. He performed in many rock and pop bands on the bass, keyboards and vocals. His original compositions in light rock and jazz pop are copyrighted. He was a member of the Songwriters Guild of America. He was a student of philosophy and believed in unity and truth in all faiths.

He was a noble soul who achieved great levels of creativity, compassion and grace. He loved nature and was a friend to all creatures.

He was married in Bath, N. H., on Nov. 28, 1985 to his beloved wife Cecilia Vistica, who survives of Andover.

Other survivors include his dear mother, Lillian of New York, sisters; Marian of Oregon; brothers Michael and his wife Sharon of California and Paul and his wife Linda of New York; close sister and friend, Alice of New Jersey; sisters-in-law Maria of Massachusetts and Gloria and her husband Steven of New York; a brother-in-law, Gregory of New Jersey; and many cousins, nieces and nephews.

A Funeral Mass was held Saturday, Feb. 21, at St. Theresa's Church in Mexico. Those who desire may contribute to the Sierra Club, Polk Street, San Francisco, CA in his memory. On-line condolences and shared memories may be expressed at meaderfh@gwi.net.

WILFRED E. CURTIS

Wilfred E. Curtis, 74, of West Paris, passed away on Feb. 16, 2004 in Valdosta, Ga., on his way home from Florida.

Born Jan. 31, 1930, in East Stoneham, the son of Ervil Curtis Sr. and Catherine Littlefield, he attended schools in Stoneham and Norway High School.

He served in the Air Force and lived in Spokane, Wash. He worked in the construction business and came back to Maine in the early 1990s and made his home in West Paris.

Survivors include four sons, Wilfred Curtis Jr. of Clarkston, Wash., Richard Buswell of Litchfield, Chester Curtis of Oxford and Lee

Curtis of Spokane, Wash.; one daughter, Joyce Smith of Buxton; one sister, Anita Moulton of Oxford; three brothers, Ivan Curtis of Wilmington, Mass., Philip Curtis of Virginia Beach, Va., and Keith Curtis of Spokane, Wash.; and his companion, Dorothy Sisson of West Paris. He was predeceased by his wife, Lucille; his parents; and two brothers, Ervil Curtis Jr. and Alton Curtis.

Family and friends may attend a celebration of his life at 4 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 27, at Oxford Advent Christian Church, Route 26, Oxford.

ETHELYN S. THURSTON

Ethelyn Stetson Thurston, 83, passed away on Feb. 23, 2004 after a long, courageous battle with diabetes and heart disease.

Born on June 23, 1920, she was the daughter of the late Ralph and Ida (Foster) Stetson Sr. of Rumford. She graduated from Stephens High School in 1938. On June 26, 1941, she married Marlin Thurston at the Virgin Memorial Chapel in Rumford.

They had been tested by life, and had survived it because of an unflinching love that had lasted for 62 years, as much in love yesterday as they were at the beginning. This marriage has been an inspiration to all who have witnessed their devotion to each other. They worked side by side for many years on the family dairy farm, while raising their family of three children.

Mrs. Thurston led a very active life aside from the family business and her family obligations. She was one of the early organizers of the Peru Extension, as well as the organizer and leader of the local 4-H club. As a member of the Peru Grange, she held the offices of past lecturer and master.

She and her husband were members of the Mollycoddett Mixers Square Dancers, and enjoyed square dancing for many years. Among the many interests she held were quilting, rug making, knitting, crocheting, sewing, and doing crafts. Above all, she was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. Her family was everything to her.

She is survived by her loving and devoted husband of Peru; three children, Wayne Thurston and his wife Adelia of Peru, Marlin Thurston Jr. (Larry) and his wife Nancy of Augusta, Louise Kangas and her husband Richard of Bryant Pond; eight grandchildren, Martin Thurston and wife June, Rhoden Thurston, Stephanie Lagasse and husband Tony, Randall Kangas and wife Becky, Sharon Manjourides and husband Keith, Cheryl Thurston Ellis and husband Randall, Clifton Thurston and James Thurston; four great-grandchildren; and her sister, Winifred Littlefield of Auburn. She was predeceased by her parents; her brothers, Ralph Stetson Jr. and Donald Stetson; and great-grandson, Kameron Manjourides.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 27, at the Meader & Son Funeral Home Franklin Street, Rumford. Interment in the spring will be in the Dickvale Cemetery in Peru. Friends are invited to call at the funeral home on Thursday 2 to 4 and 6-8 p.m. In lieu of flowers, the family is asking that donations be sent to the American Diabetes Association, 163 Lancaster Street, Suite 98R, Portland, ME 04104 in her memory. Online condolences and shared memories may be expressed at: meaderfh@gwi.net.

Weddings

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Conant

Dr. Triste Marie Coulombe and Aaron Daniel Conant exchanged wedding vows Sunday, Sept. 28, 2003 at the Jesus Saviour Church, Newport, R.I. The Rev. Francis A. O'Loughlin performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Robert R. and Mercedes S. Coulombe of Newport and the bridegroom is the son of Roger R. and Lillian R. Conant of Bethel.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Mercedes Mellekas of Newport as honor attendant. Lorena Tyler of Bethel and Jeannine Rand of Richmond, Va., sisters of the bridegroom, and Sara Fazio of Boston, Mass., and Pamela Bass of Providence, R.I., served as bridesmaids.

Patrick Feeney of Bethel served as the best man. Ushers were Stan Zakharin of Ticonderoga, N.Y., Aaron Erlandson of Boston, Mass., Mark Bartlett of Bethel and Robert R. Coulombe Jr., brother of the bride of Miami, Fla.

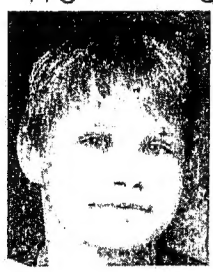

Mercedes Mellekas, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. Lance Tyler and Joshua Rand, nephews of the groom accompanied her.

After a reception at Astor's Beechwood in Newport, R.I., the couple left for Rome and Venice, Italy, for their honeymoon. They are now residing in Portsmouth, R.I.

The bride is a graduate of Rogers High School and received a bachelor's degree in biology from Brown University in 1991. She is a 1995 graduate of Brown University's Medical School and is an obstetrician/gynecologist at Aquidneck Medical Associates in Portsmouth.

The groom is a graduate of Telstar Regional High School in 1991 and received a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from the University of Maine at Orono in 1995. He is a chemical engineer at Biogen Pharmaceuticals in Cambridge, Mass.

Don't overpay your taxes

The Tax Act of 2003 cut tax rates and made many other significant changes to the tax law. Some tax breaks last for only a few years, so it's important that you learn about them soon enough to benefit from them. Don't let unfamiliarity with the new rules or confusion over their applicability result in your paying higher taxes than necessary. For tax return preparation that includes all the 2003 credits and deductions you're entitled to, call us for an appointment.
